Airport Transportation Information

Santa Fe is located in Northern New Mexico, an hour's drive North of Albuquerque (which is the state's largest city and major air gateway). Once in Santa Fe, getting around is easy. Downtown Santa Fe and the surrounding historic districts are compact and most conveniently traveled on foot.

The Albuquerque International Sunport, as the airport is officially known, is serviced by all of the major U.S. airlines. Most visitors to Santa Fe fly in to Albuquerque and arrange transportation from there.

Santa Fe municipal airport is serviced by American and United Airlines from Dallas, Denver and Phoenix, as well as being open to private aircraft (Santa Fe Jet Center).

Several options are available to you for your arrival into New Mexico:
